

Core Values

1. We are followers of Christ

We acknowledge one Living God, the Almighty; revealed Himself in triune as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God made His love, grace and mercy to all people and us, in Jesus. From God's love we find a call to serve Him to show the love of God all over the world.

We proclaim together 'Jesus is alive; He is Lord and Saviour of the World'. We wish Him to be the controller in our individual and ministry operations.

We are followers of Jesus Christ; we seek to follow Him in His identification with the needy, the afflicted, the marginalized, the oppressed, hopeless, the lowly and powerless; in His concerns for children; in His true love to all people; in His gift of eternal life through faith in Him. From Him we find our call in the Service and witnessing of Good News of the Kingdom of God; which forms the basis of our response to human need of salvation through belief in Christ Jesus and be baptized.

We hear His call to ministering for the gospel and see instances of His wonderful life. We commit ourselves to a servanthood and team-working spirit permitting the ministry, emphasizes effectiveness in responsibilities and accountability as servants of Lord to ministering for the gospel in the world.

We bear witness to the Good News of the Kingdom of God and the Salvation offered through faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

All people within the Win All for Christ will be equipped by belief in Jesus Christ and practice to bear this witness.

Our real identity as followers of Christ will be maintained; include being sensitive to the diverse of good works in which we express that identity for the glory of God.

2. We are compassion

We have the love of God within us; we need to love in deed and in truth rather than loving only in word and in tongue. We have feelings of pity for the sorrows of others in the World.

We are friends of Poor and Orphans, we hear crying of them in the earth; We are called also to give to them, to touch them with the love of Jesus. We share with them our discovery of eternal hope in Jesus Christ.

There is a sound shouting in our hearts that, 'if I can help the needy in the World, then I must'. We give to the people in need as God provides fund and resources to us for assisting them; We are concerns for the needy.

3. We regard all people

We value and honour all people as created and loved by a Living God. We enjoy the richness of diversity in human races, tribes, languages, nations, culture and contributions.

We need the gospel of Jesus Christ to reach un-reached people and in areas where the proportion of believers in Christ Jesus is low;

We value all people as loved and offered by God a salvation to all in the world through faith in His Son Jesus Christ.

4. We are partners

We practice in team-working operation system, enabling style in working relationship. We encourage others to come and work with us to take the gospel to all over the world, to bring the lost to the Lord and win all nations for Christ Jesus.

We need one another to do what God has called us to do in order to fulfil the Great Commission declared by Jesus our Master to, 'Go into the entire world and preach the gospel to every creature'. We know through being in partnership, we can share the blessings of the Lord.

We commit ourselves to know, understand and love each other.

We are partners with the needy, all people who are in need of the gospel in the world, and with donors in a shared ministry.

We affirm and promote unity in the body of Christ. We seek partnership with churches and other ministries in this service of Jesus Christ. We seek to contribute to the holistic mission of the Church.

5. We are servants

We are servants of a Living God, Jesus Christ our master. We are servants of God for the salvation of all the of the world who will accept Jesus Christ as their Saviour; as there will be access of opportunities to receive Him.

We are in the World to bear witness of the Light, which is Jesus Christ. We strive to ensure that the Light lighted all people in the World; to the point that, all who hear had heard the gospel of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God, and all who sees had seen the Salvation of the Lord.

We know that we are to serve God not only in ministering for the gospel, but also in giving assistance to the needy; We are ready to receive various contributions for the poor and orphans. We value those contributions as they are sacred trust from God through donors on behalf of the poor and orphans. We are faithful to the purpose for which those resources are given; and in co-operation with churches, other ministries and christian organizations in areas concerned, there will be good management of it in a manner that brings maximum benefits to the needy.

We need to be good servants of God. We speak and act honestly; we strive for consistency between what we say and what we do. We need to be found faithful.

God had called us to ministering for the gospel in the world; we are willing to serve Him for His glory. We are ministers of Christ and stewards of God.
